WHO ARE WE?

We are an illustration and animation collective driven to create emotive work from a narrative and character design perspective. Our aim is to share our own passion for characters with an experimental and collaborative approach, forming a database of our own works as well as 'how to guides' and art challenges.

This is a database of our 6 artists work as well as a collection of our how to series and previous drawing challenges for those looking for inspiration.

BARTIE ILLUSTRATIONS
George (they/them)

Hi I'm George also known as Bartie, a digital illustrator and frog hoodie owner. I love creating a wide range of fantasy characters often inspired by nature and plants and the human form. I work primarily with narrative taking aspects of magic nature and fantasy, intertwining these themes to create intriguing narratives.
